PREFACE

A look back at last five years we find that the government brought about radical reforms in all sectors with behavioral change and citizen participation as key standpoints. This vital combination was triggered by values adopted by the people who ultimately owned up the reforms and became the baton bearers of change.

Taking a vantage view of our findings from several studies on the policies of the central government, this premise is strengthened further. We found that the key to success of national campaigns such as Beti Bachao Beti Padhao, Swachh Bharat Abhiyan and the ensuing societal change has been precisely that. However, it must be highlighted that states play a crucial role in any successful policy move. The spirit of Team India is decisive in achieving the desired outcomes and Haryana has indeed set an example.

The State has achieved some of its greatest feats in the last five years with policy stance modelled on this very premise. Changing social attitudes has been one of the biggest challenges to reckon with, it was about changing practices, mindsets and behaviors crystallized over lifetimes. Haryana government has redefined contours of governance and leadership and stands as a veritable example of how political will and initiative can transform even the most deep-rooted social challenges.

Progress under the Manohar Lal Khattar government meant having good infrastructure in rural as well as urban areas, improved health facilities, empowered women and decentralization of power through empowering panchayats. The bar has been raised and as we are approaching the elections, it is indeed riding on unparalleled expectations from the public. It is thus of a vital import that we take a moment and reflect back on all that has been done and all that was promised.

An assessment of the promises made and delivered by Manohar Lal Khattar Government since 2014 was carried to place a detailed report card of the government in the public domain. As per our findings, the government has fulfilled over 96 % of the promises made in the manifesto, setting new standards of accountability and inclusivity in governance. The report provides an insightful understanding of how targeted reforms have led to a transformative change in the lives of people and the society as a whole.

In the last sixty months, signature policies and schemes have marked a paradigm shift, brought about qualitative improvement in the lives of people, and made Haryana a talking point.

The monograph details the initiatives taken by the Manohar Lal Khattar government in line with the promises the party made in 2014 elections Manifesto. We intend to provide an objective analysis of the government's performance to help people make an informed choice while exercising their right to vote. Thereby, strengthening the ideals of accountability and answerability in a democratically elected government.

INTRODUCTION

Over the last five years, the Haryana government has made rapid strides in almost all key sectors, adding a progressive and forward-looking chapter to the state's growth story. The term has been one of futuristic vision and social rejuvenation of the state built on the foundation of good governance and political will. Haryana's performance in the social sector has been remarkable and has stood as an exemplary model of governance.

An objective analysis of the performance and evaluating several indicators and development criteria with respect to the 2014 level gives a convincing picture that the state has indeed risen beyond expectations. As we also draw a comparison on several facets between 2014 and 2019, we see that the efforts and initiatives of the present government have had a considerable impact.

The government has brought in a lot of systemic changes and overcame key bottlenecks to create a positive and growth-oriented environment in the State. Haryana has distinctly stood out in implementation of Beti Bachao Beti Padhao and brought about a massive mind set change among the people reflective from the fact that child sex ratio in Haryana rose from 833 in 2011 to 914 in 2018. Notably, Haryana government has sealed the maximum ultrasound machines in the history of the Pre-Conception and Pre Natal-Diagnostics Techniques Act, 1994. These initiatives are evident of strong political will and conviction to rid Haryana of regressive practices and empower women of the State. These and many such achievements made Haryana a talking point at the national fora.

Haryana BJP Manifesto Analysis

The Khattar government's term was also marked by many firsts. The initiatives, novel and targeted, have provided results and have also been presented at the national pedestal for other states to emulate. To mention some of the firsts, Haryana is the first state to implement Pradhan Mantri Jan Arogya Yojana, first state to make family identification cards, first to become kerosene-free, first to implement 'Jal Hi Jiwan' scheme, the state launched 181 buses especially for women, first state to extend pension of Rs 10,000 for scribes and veteran journalists, state's eight districts got 24-hour power supply among many such more first time firsts.

The state government has also established a benchmark in participatory governance through a range of e-services and measures like CM Window, empowering the common man and enhancing accountability. The reforms undertaken and Industry-friendly policies during the last five years has boosted Haryana's economy. According to the investors' feedback report shared by the Central Government, Haryana ranks among the leading states in implementation of reforms. Haryana also jumped from 14th in 2014 to 3rd position in the 2019 under the Ease of doing business Index 2018 and is 1st among the North Indian States.

The election manifesto of the Khattar government promised a range of reforms with emphasis on all sectors and laid a roadmap for the state. The analysis undertaken presents an apt picture of how the government has not only delivered on the promised measures but has also gone beyond the promised word to bring about a difference in the lives of people.

HARYANA ACHIEVES HIGHEST-EVER SEX RATIO

NEWS (continued)

The state could be seen as a success story in the field of sex ratio, as the state has achieved the highest sex ratio in the country for the first time in its history. The sex ratio in the state has risen to 943 for the first time in its history, according to the Census 2011. This is a significant achievement for the state, as it has been consistently one of the lowest in the country for several years.

The state government has attributed this achievement to its long-term policy of gender equality and women's empowerment. The state has implemented various schemes and programs aimed at improving the status of women and ensuring their equal access to education and employment opportunities.

The state government has also implemented various measures to ensure the health and well-being of women and children. This includes providing access to quality healthcare services, including prenatal and postnatal care, and ensuring that women have access to safe drinking water and sanitation facilities.

The state government has also implemented various measures to ensure the economic empowerment of women. This includes providing access to credit facilities, skill development programs, and self-help groups. The state has also implemented various measures to ensure the social empowerment of women, including providing access to education and employment opportunities.
